The Wichitas Lose to Omaha. It was the Wichitas and the Omahas yes flerday afternoon, and the game was a great one, as neat and clean a piece of work as has been seen at association park this summer. The audience, though small, was very enthuslastic, recognizing with its plaudits the brilliant playing of the visitors as well as that of the home team, and at the end of the ninth inning everybody went home happy and satistled. While the work of both teams was of an exceptionally fine order, that of the Omahas was particularly praiseworthy, but two errors being scored against them. . Their batting, fielding and base-running were all of an order exhilerating to behold, and the crowd in attendance was the best natured one seen there for many a day. The Wichitas, too, were on their mettle, and made the Omahas hustle in the liveliest kind of a style for their little victory. Their batting was rather weak, notwithstanding they got two two-baggers and a home run, but their fielding, in a great measure, was quick, clean and decisive, and they nipped many a run that would have been scored on Pettiford, the Wichita pitcher, is deserving of a paragraph all by himself, for of all non-descripts ever seen in the points he is the greatest, His contortions, twists, convolugreatest. His contortions, twists, convolulions and gyrations are enough to give the man the St. Vitus dance, and to see him go through with his monkey business in the Humpty Dumpty uniforms with which the manly forms of the Wichitas are clad, is enough to make a wooden Indian smile.

As usual the Omahas broke the ice in the first Inning. Waish died on first from pitcher, as did Messitt also, but Dick Dwyer got his base on Hulps error. On Fusselbach's clean hit to center Dwyer scored.
Bader took first on balls, but Bandle ended the inning by a weak drive to short.

Hemp opened up for the visitors by acorder to center for two sacks, but Daniels and Sunday and Sharry retired as fast as they faced Barston.

In the second Krehmeyer, Genins and Barston went out in one, two, three order.

Harston went out in one, two, three order. For the Wichitas, Harding got his base on an error of Futselbach's, but sharp fielding on the part of the Omaha's prevented him from ratting any further.

the part of the Omaha's prevented him from getting any further.

In the third Walsh lined out a safe one past short; Messitt followed with a safe grounder to left, Walsh going to third and Messitt stealing second. Dwyer sat down on a long fly to left. Fusselbach hit to short and on his throw to first Walsh crossed the plate. Batter then hit a fly to right, and Messitt was caught at the plate.

In this inning the Wichitas scored two runs. Pettiford out from third to first; Hemp hit safe to right and stole second. Daniel's two-bagger brought him in, and on Sunday's out Daniels scored. Sharry retired on a weak drive to Walsh.

In the sixth Bader lined out a two-bazger, stole third as only Bader can, and on Genins' hit to third, scored. Bandle and Krehmeyer then went to the bonch on weak hits, and Genins was caught trying to score on an error. From this on out the Wichitas retired in one, two, three order, but the home team succeeded in knocking out the winning run in the seventh.

Bartson retired from short to first. Walsh hit safe and stole second. Messitt died in a long fly to center, beautifully caught, but reliable old Richard Dwyer came along with a cracking smash past Hull and Walsh ran home with the score that did the business. Fusselbach got to first on a fumble by Sharry, land stole second, but Bader's out left him.

In the eighth it was one, two, three for Omaha, but in the ninth they succeeded in getting three men on bases without being allowed to-score, however, so vigilant and active were the Humpty Dumptys from southern Kansas. Following is:

DENVER, Col., August 19 .- | Special Telegram to the BER.]—The raking which the Denver public and papers have been giving the crippled ball club of this city has had r good offect as seen by to-day's game with the Kansas City. The Denver boys played in their finest style. The way Kansas City their finest style. The way Kansas City chased the ball in the "light air" had a aery demoralizing effect on them. Ehret pitched one of the best games of the season and received perfect support. Denver batted as they are able to do and wore the Kansas City fielders out, Gorman and Silch especially batting hard. Manning was an immense failure, doing nothing to assist his club either in the field or at the bat. He had a good opportunity in the fifth to tie the score had he been able to make a hit, but he could not do it. With the exception of Little the Kansas City's fielding was rank, regular Denver fielding before the latter braced up. Following is the score by innings:

Lincoln 10 Topeka 9. LINCOLN, Neb., August 12 - | Special Telegram to the BEE. |- The opening game of the Lincoln and Topeka clubs was witnessed by 8,500 people that packed the grand stand benches and the ground. The game was long and exciting, especially in the seventh inning, when the visitors took the lead. The reserved power of Lincoln stayed with them. They pounded out a victory in the face of the rankest umpire that ever entered a ball ground. When Hart and Shaffer pounded out a home run for the home club the grand stand went wild and in the last two innings when Hart held the umpire and the batters for scoring, the enthusiasm was great. The features of the same were the double plays, the batting of Hart and others in the home club and the one-hand catch of a liner by Herr that made one of the double plays. An excursion train came from Wahoo with a band and delegations from Crete, Weeping Water and other points were on the ground. Topeka had a large delegation of men with money, considerable of which reached the pockets of Lincon men. Even bets were made in the evening on to-morrow's game and the lobby at the Capital hotel is as crowded as at a state convention. Efforts are being made to have a league umpire for the coming games and to avoid the spectacle of roasting that the umpire gave the home team to-day. Excursion trains will bring an immense attendance to-morrow. Following is the score: the batting of Hart and others in the

of England, took place to-day and was won by the Englishman, who made the distance in twenty minutes. Ross took the lead on the start and was not headed until on the last quarter of a mile, when the seat broke and he was compelled to stop. Bubear rowed home. When the accident occurred Ross led by about a length and Bubear rapidly crossing the gap. It was the general coinion that the Englishman would have won anynow.

A Race Horse Wrecked. PITTSBURG, August 12.-Captain Brown, owner of the great racer Troubadour, reports that horse a complete wreck. He will not start in the champion stakes to-morrow, and next week will be shipped to Brown's stock farm in Kentucky and put on the stud.

Local Sporting Notes. The ball game will be called at 3 o'clock

Young wood duck are reported in unusual plentifulness at Horseshoe lake and surrounding sloughs. The Omahas made fourteen hits and but one error yesterday, which affords some idea of the fine game they played.

Bandle and Harper will do the batting for the home team this afternoon, and Jumbo and Paniels for the visitors. The P. and H. Rifle club are arranging for a telegraphic match with the Detroit club, to take place one day next week.

Heard that Pettiford, the Wichita pitcher, used to travel as Pantaloons with the Dick Roberts Humpty Dumpty combination. The five gun clubs of Omaha embrace a membership of 300, and within their ranks are some of the best shots in the country.

Maybe Bartson didn't pitch a beautiful game yesterday. The boy while he has wonderful control of the ball, uses the best of headwork at all times.

The double play by Walsh and Dwyer and Fusselbach yesterday afternoon was one of the best executed seen on the local grounds for lo, these many moons.

So-called sportsmen are out after chicken every day, and the young birds are being killed off in a way that calls loudly for the appointment of game wardens. Walsh and Dwyer both had on their bat-ting unmentionables yesterday, and they made Mr. Pettiford look more like a jack-inthe-box than ever, when they stepped to the plate.

Jack Prince, the bloycle man, will move into spacious new rooms, three doors north of those he now occupies. Prince is in daily training with the view of challenging Rowe, the charping of the country. the champion of the country.

The Lefever Gun club shoot will take place this afternoon on the Omaha club grounds back of Shaw & Fields warehouse. There will also be a couple of side live bird shoots, and an enjoyable afternoon is anticipated. The Wichitas have been greatly strength-ened by the acquistion of Harding, Issaeson and Hemp and are really playing a strong game. Those expecting to see a poor nine in the Wichitas will be immensely deceived. Secretary McShane says the races during the fair next month will be the best speed trials ever witnessed in the state. Some of the most noted flyers in the country will be here, while the entries of local steppers is very extensive. John Hardin, of the popular sporting house of Penrose & Hardin, has lost his Irish setter "Plum," and will pay handsomely for any information that will lead to his recovery. "Plum" is a valuable dog and Mr. Hardin is much perturbed over his loss.

McHenry Johnson, the Black Star. continues to keep up a mild course of training. He is not carrying a pound of superfluous adiposo and is as hard as nails. He has given up all hopes of getting in a go with John P. Clow. He offered to light him any sort of a fight anywhere and for any stake, and what the Star says he means.

A full-sized portrait of Tommy Miller, the champion feather weight of the west, in ring costume, will appear in the next issue of the Sporting News. Miller and his backers are still negotiating with Tommy Warren, but there seems little likelihood of their coming to an understanding, Warren manifesting a persistent unwillingness, for some reason or other, to try conclusions with Miller.

lves Crookedness. NEW YORK, August 12 .- The only new deelopments in the lves matter to-day is the statement that the district attorney had taken up his case and would lay the facts before the grand jury. Neither Ives nor his counsel would talk on the matter. There was a meeting of creditors friendly to Ives at the office of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton company in the afternoon. The assignee reported serious efforts being made with substantial progress looking to the paying off of all the secured indebtedness of Ives & Co., and a syndicate had been formed with this view. Also that the Uncinnati, Hamiliton & Dayton was working in the same connection and aiding in every way by the use of its own name, and a resolution was adopted recommending creditors holding securities to take no action at present, but to give the assignee reasonable time in which to provide for all claims.

Centenary Commemoration. LONDON, August 22.-A centenary service to commemorate the establishment of the first piscopate in America was given in Westminster abbey to-day. The sermon was de-livered by the bishop of Iowa. He reviewed at length the ecclestiastical work of Dr. Ingles, whose earnestness, he said, had greatly advanced the position of the church. He referred to the foundation of the cathedrai at Halifax to-day as a fitting memento of his work.

Blaine and the Irish People. DUBLIN, August 12.—Blaine has written to Lord Mayor Sullivan thanking him for the honor conferred upon him in tendering him a banquet and expressing regret that he must decline on account of having previously arranged to leave for the continent Thursday. He will not forget the kindness received in Ireland, and the deep interest always taken by him in the welfare of the Irish people, has, if possible, licreased.

THE FREMONT CAMP-MEETING.

Great Interest Manifested and Much Good Being Done-Prohibitionusts Will Hold Their State Convention at Leigh.

Indignation at Callaway. CALLAWAY, Neb., August 12.-[Special to the Bek. |- A smoldering feeling of indignation at the rulings of Judge F. D. Hamer in the murder case of the State vs. Gilson A. James, which was tried at Broken Bow last May, and resulted in Judge Hamer excluding circumstantial evidence and in clearing and turning loose on the public the redhanded villain, has been fanued into a blaze of excitement. The murderer James, after being released, knowing that almost every citizen of Callaway believed him and his wife to have murdered Charley Hayes, one of the hardest working and best hearted young men here, and to have invented the story of Hayes getting into their bed, had the gall to come through Callaway several times as a kind of bravado, for the citizens of this vicinity intended to lynch him for the murder of Haves if he had not been slipped away in the night. The citizens his insult until last night when the climax was reached. Last week every able-bodied citizen of Callaway was supernaed to Gandy, a little town some fit ty miles up in the sand hills in Logan county, to give evidence in a libel case James had brought against the editor of the Gandy paper. This fact was not conducive to a good feeling toward James. Yesterday he came here with his family to work in Palcame here with his family to work in Palmer's bill ard hall. This announcement that he had come to stay was too much. A meeting was held, and a notice was sent him to be out of town by 10 o'clock last night or abide the consequences. After dark men could be seen coming into town from different directions, and groups with a mysterious air were gathered on the principal street. It looked as if the notice meant buriness, and so thought the buriness, and so thought the murderer James for about 9 o'clock, he said to several of the the men on the corner: "Boys, goodbye; you are too many. I guess I'll take a walk." Off he went out of town, of the night, freed by Hamer, but driven out from the habitations of respectable people by those who knew him.

Subsequent to the departure of James it was ascertained by the crowd that had gathered that Mrs. James was secreted at Young's boarding house. A committee was appointed and sent to the livery barn for a team. They proceeded to the boarding house, made Mrs. James prepare for the journey and sent her under guard to Broken Bow, whose court turned her and her hosband, who it is believed to be two of the hardest characters in Nebraska, loose to insult and be endured by a respectable community. After she departed the enraged crowd fired at least one hundred shots through Palmers billiard hall. Palmer is a brother-in-law of James.

James claims to be accusin of the outlaw Jesse James, and prided himself on the relationship, and thought to terrorize the town into quietly submitting to his residence. When the sheriff examined him after arrest he had several builet wounds on his body. His personal appearatice is that of a sneaking villian. His looks show what he is. with the citizens and farmers of this part of Custer county. James came here and pretended to run a boarding house. By his scheming and his wife's art it is believed by those who know the most about it that they bled young hayes all summer, and on the night of the murder they tried to make him give up his money received for work for railroaders to enable James to build a house on a claim he had jumped and had to get on at once. Judge Hamer when he tried the case, as it would appear purposely ruled out all the circumstantial convicting evidence and James was cleared. The people who know the facts are very indignant at Hamer.

THE HALF-BREED MURDERER. Barada the Hatchet Wielder Before the United States Court.

Deputy United States Marshal Allen returned from the Sac and Fox Indian reservation in Richardson county yesterday with William Barada, a halfbreed French Indian, charged with murdering John Didier, another half-breed, in custody. Barada was arraigned before Judge Dundy this morning and held for preliminary examination on Thursday, the 18th inst., when the witnesses on both sides will be present.

Barada, the murderer, is a short, thick set, powerful fellow, with a dogged, determined, dusky face, lit up by a pair of eyes that gleam like a serpent's, and a generally repellant and ferocious look. He and Didier got into an altercation over the trade of some trivial articles, in which Barada claimed he had been worsted. Didier endeavored to joke the matter away, but suddenly Barada whipped a hatchet from his belt and buried its keen blade in Didier's head, killing him instantly. The cold-blooded deed caused much excitement among the Indians and half-breeds, and for a while it was feared that other scenes of bloodshed would foi-

PARKER, THE ROAD AGENT. Arrested by Thieves who Claim to be Deputy Marshals.

United States Marshal Bierbower was !n receipt of numerous dispatches yesterday inquiring about the reward the government proposes to give for the arrest of Charles Parker, the road agent who robbed Paymaster Bash between Fort Fetterman and Fort Mc-Kinney, on March 18, and got away with something like $8,000 in cash. Several of these telegraphic communications state that Parker was arrested by a man named Lucas, who claimed to be in the service of Marshal Bierbower, and and three other men, that they over-hauled Parker, took his money from him, divided it among themselves, and then let him go. Lucas was afterwards ar-rested near Fort Fetterman, and still held there. DECORATIVE ART.

THIBTY YEARS IN THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

From the Chicago Daily News June 23, 187

In public places, especially in the summer season, the eye is often attracted by neat decorations which embellish chandeliers and ceilings as protection against those hu-man pests, the flies, which, however, serve their purpose as the scavengers of the air. The designs employed are ofttimes really works of art, and the deft way in which they are attachted to walls and ceilings so as to propect them; gives an impression of airy lightness which is pleasing to the eye. airy lightness which is pleasing to the eye. No man has probably spent so much time in Chicago on this line of trade as the subject of the following sketch; He has been a resident of Chicago for thirty years, coming here with his parents when only 10 years of age, and having grown up with the city his name is known to thousands of her people. Within a short time such a wonderful change has taken place in his personal appearance that it has attracted the attention of his friends as well as that of a reporter, who called upon him within a day or two and obtained the following sworn statement

Personally appeared before me, George W. Hoover, No 278 West Twelfth street, who, being sworn according to law, doth That I have been ill for two or three years with a lung trouble, which a short time since resulted in hemorrhage, so that I re-marked to my wife: I think about next fall I will finish up. That I have paid out hun-dreds of dollars in the past two years for medicine and advice, but nothing did me any practical good. I would stop coughing for an hour or so, but it would come again next day. The relief afforded me was only temdorary. I read of the numerous cures which had been effected by Dr. McCoy in the papers, and they described so closely my symptoms that I called upon him at No. 10 Park Row. Dr. McCoy told me that I had catarrhal bronchitis, and there was serious trouble with the right lung in the form of an abscess. I was put under the treatment, and he gave me relief right away. The night sweats with which I had been troubled have left me and I now rest well. I began the 'featment on the 23d of May last, I used to cough every morning; would get sick at the stomach. I have been very nearly strangled trying to get something up when there was nothing to come up. But now I am doing splen-didly. Have a clear head. I am not clouded up. I can travel all day and not tire out, and I can assure you my work requires me to go about a great deal. I am satisfied that if I had not gone under this treatment I should have been compelled to stop work entirely, and this is my busy season. I was obliged on account of my trouble to leave a very easy situation about a year ago because I could not stand the night air aud was constantly taking cold. have not felt so well fo now, and I work hard, too. My friends remark my improved appearance, and I have gained five pounds in the little time which I have been under treatment, and I am convinced that a cure will be effected. GEORGE W. HOOVER.

LEADS TO CONSUMPTION. Interesting Evidence of a Condition Not to Be Trifled With.

The disease from which Mr. Hoover suffered was catarrhal consumption. The disease originated in a cold, which became. chronic. As a result came the formation of mucus, which was partly discharged from the head or dropped down the throat and was partially hawked up. A large portion of it, however, was swollowed, passing into the stomach and causing catarrh there. The mucus formed by catarrh decomposes, and when it reaches the stomach is either absorbed in the blood, producing all manner of evil symptoms, or else coats over the food with a slimy material, which prevents the food from coming in contact with the digestive juices in the stomach. The food itself decomposes, forms gas or wind in large quantities, and causes a feeling of bloating or fullness after eating.

When the catarrh has existed in the head and the upper part of the throat for any length of time—the patient living in a district where people are subject to catarrhal affection-and the disease has been left uncured, the catarrh invariably, sometimes slowly, extends down the windpipe and nto the bronchial tubes, which tubes convey the air to the different parts of the . lungs. The tubes become affected from the swelling and the mucus arising from catarrh, and in some instances becomes plugged up so that the air cannot get in as reely as it should. Shortness of breath ollows and the patient breathes with labor and difficulty. In either case there is a sound of crackling and wheezing inside the chest. At this stage of the disease the breathing is usually more rapid than when is health. The patient also has hot flashes over his body.
